Note:

While I can't mention all of them, I want to take a moment to share another outstanding arrest made by our West LA officers. On July 21, 2016, at 2:00 am, two women were arrested after they were observed walking in and out of various apartment/condo complexes in the Bundy/Goshen/Westgate/Granville/Gorham vicinity. They had in their possession a general use mailbox key which not only afforded them the ability to enter the lobbies of numerous complexes, but also allowed them to access the mailboxes within the lobbies. They were simply walking from building to building and stealing what they could get their hands on. Both were arrested for burglary.

I've mentioned before how these keys sometimes end up in the hands of thieves... Seasonal postal workers, fired or disgruntled postal workers, etc., allow for the keys to be copied, stolen and/or sold. The problem is rampant. Please take measures to pick up your mail at the earliest opportunity. If mail/package theft is suspected, please have someone review the security tapes and provide copies to police.

Lastly, we are still experiencing a downward trend in overall crime for the Brentwood area. We are down 34.4% in burglaries, 3.2% down in vehicle break-ins, and we are breaking even in grand theft auto at 0%. So while I want to enjoy this reprieve (that I hopefully didn't just jinx) I still want folks to maintain vigilance about keeping their homes secured and ALL items out of their cars, always.

All the best,
